Florence J. Helriegel Cashier of the New Bank—Corner Stone Laying Tomorrow—Other Notes.

Florence J. Helriegel, who was recently honored by being chosen cashier of the new South Scranton bank, is a young man of exceptional qualities and ability which it is for the position he has been

During the alterations, which are necessary to prepare the Robinson property for bank purposes, Mr. Helriegel will be thoroughly instructed in bank account details at the Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit bank, under the direction of Frank Hummer. Luther Fess Waring, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, and interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker G. A. Miller.

Another Fish Story.

George Rosen, of Cedar avenue, is responsible for the story that a monster fish, probably a German carp, inhabits the rocky waters of the Lackawanna, and makes his home near the Lackawanna brewery. Mr. Rosen stated last evening that owing to stories he had heard the past week, he made a trip to the spot indicated, which is above Pine Brook, and about a block from the brewery. On arriving there about 4 o'clock, he found others on watch, and as daylight broke they were rewarded by seeing the monster fish, which appeared to be fully six feet long.

Although several members of the party possessed shotguns all were afraid to fire, as they thought, by the size of the animal that a cannon ball would be necessary to kill it. Several persons verified Mr. Rosen's statement, that it was the biggest fish they had ever seen, and as he was serious, there is no reason to doubt his word. The big fish can only be seen in the early morning hours, as he lays low during the day.
